"Working with SIU and Scott has been so refreshing in that I don't feel like I have to hide or feel ashamed of my recovery journey. I have felt supported throughout the entire process, and am so endlessly grateful that an organization like this exists."

-Service in Unity Staff Member

"We are so thankful for Service in Unity -- their employees have helped us get to necessary tasks around the office that staff struggle to find time to do, and we have been able to refer our own participants to the program to support them in their recovery. It's a win-win!"
